20.	a)	The Board may, from time to time, make calls upon the members in respect of any monies unpaid on their shares and securities (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times: Provided that no call shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal value of the share or be payable at less than one month from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call.
	b)	Each member shall, subject to receiving at least fourteen days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment, pay to the company, at the time or times and place so specified, the amount called on his shares and securities.
	c)	A call may be revoked or postponed at the discretion of the Board.
21.	A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorising the call was passed and may be required to be paid by instalments.
22.	The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
23.	a)	If a sum called in respect of a share and security is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest thereon from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at ten per cent. per annum or at such lower rate, if any, as the Board may determine.
	b)	The Board shall be at liberty to waive payment of any such interest wholly or in part.
24.	a)	Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share and security becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share and security or by way of premium, shall, for the purposes of these regulations, be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue such sum becomes payable.
	b)	In case of non-payment of such sum, all the relevant provisions of these regulations as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
25.	The Board—
	a)	may, if it thinks fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the monies uncalled and unpaid upon any shares and securities held by him; and
	b)	upon all or any of the monies so advanced, may (until the same would, but for such advance, become presently payable) pay interest at such rate not exceeding, unless the Company in general meeting shall otherwise direct, twelve per cent. per annum, as may be agreed upon between the Board and the member paying the sum in advance.

TRANSFER OF SHARES AND SECURITIES
26.	a)	The instrument of transfer of any share and securities in the Company shall be executed by or on behalf of both the transferor and transferee.
	b)	The transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members in respect thereof.
27.	The Board may, subject to the right of appeal conferred by Section 58 decline to register—
	a)	the transfer of a share and securities, not being a fully paid share and securities, to a person of whom they do not approve; or
	b)	any transfer of shares and securities on which the Company has a lien.
28.	The Board may decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless—
	a)	the instrument of transfer is in the form as prescribed in rules made under sub-section (1) of section 56;
	b)	the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer; and
	c)	the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of shares and securities.
29.	On giving not less than seven days' previous notice in accordance with section 91 and rules made thereunder, the registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Board may from time to time determine: Provided that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty days at any one time and for more than forty-five days in the aggregate in any year.
TRANSMISSION OF SHARES AND SECURITIES
30.	a)	On the death of a member, the survivor or survivors where the member was a joint holder, and his nominee or nominees or legal representatives where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to his interest in the shares and securities.
	b)	Nothing in clause (i) shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share and security which had been jointly held by him with other persons.
31.	a)	Any person becoming entitled to a share and security in consequence of the death or insolvency of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Board and subject as hereinafter provided, elect, either—
	i.	to be registered himself as holder of the share and security; or
	ii.	to make such transfer of the share and security as the deceased or insolvent member could have made.
	b)	The Board shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as it would have had, if the deceased or insolvent member had transferred the share before his death or insolvency.
32.	a)	If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered as holder of the share himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects.
	b)	If the person aforesaid shall elect to transfer the share and security, he shall testify his election by executing a transfer of the share.
	c)	All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these regulations relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares and securities shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or insolvency of the member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that member.
33.	A person becoming entitled to a share and security by reason of the death or insolvency of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share and security, except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share and security, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company:

	Provided that the Board may, at any time, give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share and security, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other monies payable in respect of the share, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.
FORFEITURE OF SHARES AND SECURITY
34.	If a member fails to pay any call, or instalment of a call, on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Board may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued.
35.	The notice aforesaid shall—
	a) name a further day (not being earlier than the expiry of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made; and
	b) state that, in the event of non-payment on or before the day so named, the shares in respect of which the call was made shall be liable to be forfeited.
36.	If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share and security in respect of which the notice has been given may, at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect.
37.	a) A forfeited share and security may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Board thinks fit.
	b) At any time before a sale or disposal as aforesaid, the Board may cancel the forfeiture on such terms as it thinks fit
38.	a) A person whose shares and security have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares and security, but shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, remain liable to pay to the Company all monies which, at the date of forfeiture, were presently payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares and security.
	b) The liability of such person shall cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all such monies in respect of the shares and security.
39.	a) A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a director, the manager or the secretary, of the company, and that a share and security in the Company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share and security;
	b) The Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share and security on any sale or disposal thereof and may execute a transfer of the share and security in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of;
	c) The transferee shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share and security; and
	d) The transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share and security be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share and security.
40.	The provisions of these regulations as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share and security, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
ALTERATION OF CAPITAL
41.	The Company may, from time to time, by ordinary resolution increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as may be specified in the resolution.
42.	Subject to the provisions of section 61, the Company may, by ordinary resolution,—
	a) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;

	b)	convert all or any of its fully paid-up shares into stock, and reconvert that stock into fully paid-up shares of any denomination;
	c)	sub-divide its existing shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the memorandum;
	d)	cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person
43.	Where shares are converted into stock,—
	a)	the holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner as, and subject to the same regulations under which, the shares from which the stock arose might before the conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit: Provided that the Board may, from time to time, fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, so, however, that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.
	b)	the holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the company, and other matters, as if they held the shares from which the stock arose; but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.
	c)	such of the regulations of the Company as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock and the words “share” and “shareholder” in those regulations shall include “stock” and “stockholder” respectively.
44.	The Company may, by special resolution, reduce in any manner and with, and subject to, any incident authorised and consent required by law,—
	a)	its share capital;
	b)	any capital redemption reserve account; or
	c)	any security premium account.
CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS
45.	a)	The Company in general meeting may, upon the recommendation of the Board, resolve—
	i.	that it is desirable to capitalise any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the company’s reserve accounts, or to the credit of the profit and loss account, or otherwise available for distribution; and
	ii.	that such sum be accordingly set free for distribution in the manner specified in clause (ii) amongst the members who would have been entitled thereto, if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions.
	b)	The sum aforesaid shall not be paid in cash but shall be applied, subject to the provision contained in the Act, either in or towards—
	i.	paying up any amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares held by such members respectively;
	ii.	paying up in full, unissued shares of the Company to be allotted and distributed, credited as fully paid-up, to and amongst such members in the proportions aforesaid;
	iii.	partly in the way specified in sub-clause (i) and partly in that specified in sub-clause (ii);
	iv.	A securities premium account and a capital redemption reserve account may, for the purposes of this regulation, be applied in the paying up of unissued shares to be issued to members of the Company as fully paid bonus shares;
	v.	The Board shall give effect to the resolution passed by the Company in pursuance of this regulation.

46.	a)	Whenever such a resolution as aforesaid shall have been passed, the Board shall—
	i.	make all appropriations and applications of the undivided profits resolved to be capitalised thereby, and all allotments and issues of fully paid shares if any; and
	ii.	generally do all acts and things required to give effect thereto.
	b)	The Board shall have power—
	i.	to make such provisions, by the issue of fractional certificates or by payment in cash or otherwise as it thinks fit, for the case of shares becoming distributable in fractions; and
	ii.	to authorise any person to enter, on behalf of all the members entitled thereto, into an agreement with the Company providing for the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid-up, of any further shares to which they may be entitled upon such capitalisation, or as the case may require, for the payment by the Company on their behalf, by the application thereto of their respective proportions of profits resolved to be capitalised, of the amount or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares;
	c)	Any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on such members.
BUY-BACK OF SHARES
47.	Notwithstanding anything contained in these articles but subject to the provisions of sections 68 to 70 and any other applicable provision of the Act or any other law for the time being in force, the Company may purchase its own shares or other specified securities.
CESSATION OF MEMBERS
48.	In case the directors consider that the continuance of any person as a member of the company is detrimental to the interest of the company they may in their discretion if authorised by a special resolution passed by the company at the General Meeting call upon the said person or persons to transfer his or her or their representative share or shares in accordance with the provisions of these articles and from the date the transfer of shares becomes effective under the aforesaid resolution, the said persons shall ipso facto cease to be a member or members of the company and become disentitled to any of the rights, privileges and benefits as such member of the company.
NOMINATION OF SHARE AND SECURITY
49.	a)	Subject to the provisions of section 72 of the Companies Act, 2013 every shareholder or debentureholder of the company, may at any time, nominate in the prescribed manner a person to whom his/her shares in, or debentures of the company shall vest in the event of his/her death.
	b)	Where the shares in, or debentures of the company are held by more than one person jointly, the jointholders may together nominate, in the prescribed manner, a person to whom all the rights in the shares or debentures of the company as the case may be, shall vest in the event of the death of all the joint holders.
	c)	Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force or in any disposition, whether testamentary or otherwise, in respect of such shares in or debentures of the company where the nomination made in the prescribed manner purports to confer on any of the right to vest the shares in or debentures of the company, the nominee shall, on the death of the shareholder or debentureholder, as the case may be, on the death of the joint holders, become entitled to all the rights in such shares or debentures or as the case may be, all the joint holders, in relation to such shares or debentures, to the exclusion of all other person, unless the nomination is varied or cancelled in the prescribed manner.
	d)	Where the nominee is minor, it shall be lawful for the holder of the shares or debentures, to make the nomination to appoint, in the prescribed manner, any person to become entitled to shares in or debentures of the company, in the event of his/her death, during the minority.
50.	A nominee, upon production of such evidence as may be required by the Board as per the relevant laws and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either:—

	a)	To be registered himself/herself as holder of the share or debenture, as the case may be;
	b)	To make such transfer of the share or debenture, as the case may be. as the deceased share holder or debenture holder, could have made:
	c)	If the nominee elects to be registered as holder of the share or debenture, himself/herself, as the case may be he/she shall deliver or send to the company, a notice in writing signed by him/her stating that he/she so elects and such notice shall be accompanied with the death certificate of the deceased shareholder or debenture holder as the case may be;
	d)	A nominee shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantage to which he/she would be entitled to if he/she was the registered holder of the share or debenture except that he/she shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of his/her share or debenture, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the company. Provided further that Board may, at any time, give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself/herself or to transfer the share or debenture, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonus or other money payable or rights accruing in respect of such share or debenture, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.
MEETINGS
General Meeting
51.		All general meetings other than annual general meeting shall be called extraordinary general meeting.
52.	a)	The Board may, whenever it thinks fit, call an extraordinary general meeting.
	b)	If at any time directors capable of acting who are sufficient in number to form a quorum are not within India, any director or any two members of the Company may call an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which such a meeting may be called by the Board.
Proceedings at General Meetings
53.	a)	No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business.
	b)	Save as otherwise provided herein, the quorum for the general meetings shall be as provided in section 103.
54.		The chairperson, if any, of the Board shall preside as Chairperson at every general meeting of the company.
55.		If there is no such Chairperson, or if he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or is unwilling to act as chairperson of the meeting, the directors present shall elect one of their members to be Chairperson of the meeting.
56.		If at any meeting no director is willing to act as Chairperson or if no director is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall choose one of their members to be Chairperson of the meeting.
Adjournment of Meeting
57.	a)	The Chairperson may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall, if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place.
	b)	No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
	c)	When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting.
	d)	Save as aforesaid, and as provided in section 103 of the Act, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
Voting Rights
58.		Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares,—
	a)	on a show of hands, every member present in person shall have one vote; and

	b)	on a poll, the voting rights of members shall be in proportion to his share in the paid-up equity share capital of the company.
59.	a)	A member may exercise his vote at a meeting by electronic means in accordance with section 108 and shall vote only once. A member who has already voted by electronic means shall not be entitled to vote on the same business again in any other manner whether on a poll or otherwise.
	b)	At any general meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall, unless a poll is demanded under section 109 of the Act or the voting is carried out electronically, be decided on a show of hands.
	c)	A declaration by the chairman of the meeting of the passing of a resolution or otherwise by show of hands and an entry to that effect in the books containing the minutes of the meeting of the company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact of passing of such a resolution or otherwise.
60.	a)	In the case of joint holders, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders.
	b)	For this purpose, seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of members.
61.		A member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his committee or other legal guardian, and any such committee or guardian may, on a poll, vote by proxy.
62.		Any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with, pending the taking of the poll.
63.		No member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of shares in the Company have been paid.
64.	a)	No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes.
	b)	Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chairperson of the meeting, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
Proxy
65.		The instrument appointing a proxy and the power-of-attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarised copy of that power or authority, shall be deposited at the registered office of the Company not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or, in the case of a poll, not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.
66.		An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the form as prescribed in the rules made under section 105.
67.		A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid, notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or the revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the shares in respect of which the proxy is given: Provided that no intimation in writing of such death, insanity, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the Company at its office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used.
BOARD OF DIRECTORS

	b)	A director may, and the manager or secretary on the requisition of a director shall, at any time, summon a meeting of the Board.
	c)	The Board of Directors shall be entitled to hold its meeting through Video Conferencing or other audio visual means, and in conducting the Board Meetings through such Video Conferencing or other audio visual means the procedures and the precautions as laid down in the relevant Rules shall be adhered to with regard to every Meeting conducted through Video Conferencing or other audio visual means. The scheduled venue of the Meetings shall be deemed to be in India, for the purpose of specifying the place of the said meeting and for all recordings of the proceedings at the meeting.
77.	a)	Save as otherwise expressly provided in the Act, questions arising at any meeting of the Board shall be decided by a majority of votes.
	b)	In case of an equality of votes, the Chairperson of the Board, if any, shall have a second or casting vote.
78.		The continuing directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the Board; but, if and so long as their number is reduced below the quorum fixed by the Act for a meeting of the Board, the continuing directors or director may act for the purpose of increasing the number of directors to that fixed for the quorum, or of summoning a general meeting of the company, but for no other purpose.
79.	a)	The Board may elect a Chairperson of its meetings and determine the period for which he is to hold office.

	b)	If no such Chairperson is elected, or if at any meeting the Chairperson is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the directors present may choose one of their number to be Chairperson of the meeting.
80.	a)	The Board may, subject to the provisions of the Act, delegate any of its powers to committees consisting of such member or members of its body as it thinks fit.
	b)	Any committee so formed shall, in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any regulations that may be imposed on it by the Board.
81.	a)	A committee may elect a Chairperson of its meetings.
	b)	If no such Chairperson is elected, or if at any meeting the Chairperson is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present may choose one of their members to be Chairperson of the meeting.
82.	a)	A committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks fit.
	b)	Questions arising at any meeting of a committee shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present, and in case of an equality of votes, the Chairperson shall have a second or casting vote
83.		All acts done in any meeting of the Board or of a committee thereof or by any person acting as a director, shall, notwithstanding that it may be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any one or more of such directors or of any person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such director or such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a director.
84.		Save as otherwise expressly provided in the Act, a resolution in writing, signed by all the members of the Board or of a committee thereof, for the time being entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Board or committee, shall be valid and effective as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board or committee, duly convened and held.
Powers of Board
85.		Subject to the provision of the Act the directors of the company shall have all the powers of the company except, so far as they stand restricted or regulated by the provisions of the Companies Act, or by these Articles.
86.		Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred upon the directors, whether by the provision of law for the time being in force and/or applicability of the Articles of Table 'F' and/or the provision of these presents or otherwise the Board shall be entitled to exercise all such powers and do all such acts, and these things as the company authorises them to execute or do, but it is hereby expressly declared that the directors shall have the following powers:—
